Frequent Asked Questions

Q: Is the lab training mandatory?
A: No. However, we strongly encourage you to attend at least one lab training because it is a wonderful opportunity for you to gain hands-on experience and practice what you have learned in the Poll Worker training class.

Q: Do I need to sign up beforehand?
A: Yes. We encourage you to sign up online, via email or telephone. However, you are welcome to drop by.

Q: Where is the location for the lab training?
A: All lab training sessions are held at San Mateo County Registration & Elections Division, 40 Tower Road, San Mateo, CA 94402.

Q: How long is the lab training session?
A: One hour. However, you are welcome to stay over one hour if you would like to.

Q: Can I take the lab training more than one time if I would like to practice more?
A: Yes.

Q: Will I get paid for attending the lab training?
A: No.

Q: Will there be an instructor during the lab training?
A: Yes.

Q: What are some of the things I will be able to do during the lab training?
A: You will be able to practice setting up and breaking down voting equipment, review Election Day procedures and ask questions that you did not have a chance to ask during training class.

Lab attendance DOES NOT take the place of the Mandatory Poll Worker Training Class.

At all lab sessions, you may practice any election day procedure. It's your choice.

Staff will be on hand to provide assistance and answer questions.

Sign up in advance or just drop in.
